

2024 Board Nominees

For 3 Year Term: (3 seats open)

Zach DiMotta

Zach DiMotta lives in Elmore, VT and is a regular shopper at the Morrisville Food Co-op. His two children attend Peoples Academy and he and his wife own 82 Lower Main St in Morrisville.

Zach had a 23-year career in furniture distribution working with small brick and mortar retailers and online retailers, specializing in product development, pricing, product launch and marketing campaigns.

Erika Gaudreau

Erika Gaudreau is a seasoned professional with extensive experience in the healthcare industry. Specializing in healthcare consulting and operations, she has a proven track record of leading successful projects, driving innovation, and managing high-performing teams. An entrepreneur at heart, Erika also owns and operates Red Barn Realty of Vermont, serving all of Lamoille County and extending north to Richmond and south to Montpelier. She holds a BS from Endicott College and an MBA from Northeastern University. Renowned for her strategic thinking and results-oriented approach, Erika has made substantial contributions to the Lamoille County community.

Beth Springston

Beth grew up in Massachusetts, spent her working years in California and North Carolina, then retired to Vermont. She has an MBA in Small Business Management and worked as the Controller in several small businesses. She was the owner /manager of a geotechnical drilling company for a decade before retiring to Vermont. In addition to the co-op, she volunteers at Hardwick Food Pantry, the library, Lamoille Neighbors and as a tax preparer through Capstone. She enjoys reading and baking in her free time. This would be Beth's 2nd 3-year term on the Board.

For 2 Year Term:

Bob Verrico

Bob is committed to further shaping a quality, healthy, environmentally focused, interesting, and financially stable food and related product resource for the communities in and around Morrisville. Previously, he has served on for-profit boards like EatingWell Media Group, Ursa Major Skin Care, and others, helping them to grow and be profitable. Bob is a 35+ year revenue development expert in the digital world...pre and post internet. He has built, resurrected, founded, served on boards, and advised many companies throughout his career, focusing on financial health, strategic positioning, growth, and marketing/sales approaches, resulting in very successful companies. Bob has served on the Co-op Board for a year, completing a term left open after a board member relocated out of the area.